

Title VI Complaint Procedure

The Milwaukee Careers Cooperative's Title VI Complaint Procedure is made available in the following locations:

- Agency website, www.mccjobs.org either as a reference in the Notice to Public or in its entirety
 - Hard copy in the central office located at: 3505 W. Wisconsin Avenue, Unit 6, Milwaukee, WI 53208

Any person who believes she or he has been discriminated against on the basis of race, color, or national origin by the Milwaukee Careers Cooperative may file a Title VI complaint by completing and submitting the agency's Title VI Complaint Form.

The Milwaukee Careers Cooperative investigates complaints received no more than 180 days after the alleged incident. The Milwaukee Careers Cooperative will process complaints that are complete.

Once the complaint is received, the Milwaukee Careers Cooperative will review it to determine if our office has jurisdiction. The complainant will receive an acknowledgement letter informing her/him whether the complaint will be investigated by our office.

The Milwaukee Careers Cooperative has 90 days to investigate the complaint. If more information is needed to resolve the case, the agency may contact the complainant.

The complainant has 45 business days from the date of the letter to send requested information to the investigator assigned to the case.

If the investigator is not contacted by the complainant or does not receive the additional information within 45 business days, the agency can administratively close the case. A case can be administratively closed also if the complainant no longer wishes to pursue their case.

After the investigator reviews the complaint, she/he will issue one of two (2) letters to the complainant: a closure letter or a letter of finding (LOF).

- ✓ A closure letter summarizes the allegations and states that there was not a Title VI violation and that the case will be closed.
- ✓ A letter of finding (LOF) summarizes the allegations and the interviews regarding the alleged incident, and explains whether any disciplinary action, additional training of the staff member, or other action will occur.

If the complainant wishes to appeal the decision, she/he has 45 days after the date of the letter or the LOF to do so.

A person may also file a complaint directly with the Federal Transit Administration, at FTA Office of Civil Rights, 1200 New Jersey Avenue SE, Washington, DC 20590.
